

It's just a few days until our 'Ask the Expert: Stratified bioprocesses for the manufacture of acellular biological scaffolds' event on Monday 16th April at NHSBT TES, Speke, Liverpool (10am)

There is no charge for this event, however, should you be unable to attend please cancel your ticket giving us as much notice as possible.

Here is some useful information about the venue and arrangements for the day:

Venue

Registration will take place from 10am at the NHSBT TES building in Speke, Liverpool.

Directions

A map with full directions and parking details can be found attached to this email or on our website.

Car parking

Free parking is available on site.

Event programme

Registration will commence from 10am with tea and coffee available, and the session will begin promptly at 10.30am.

10.00-10.30 am	Coffee and registration
10.30- 10.45	Welcome & Introduction – Richard Lomas (Clinical Development Scientist, NHS Blood & Transplant Tissue & Eye Services)
10.45 – 11.15	Presentation from Professor Paul Rooney (Research & Development Manager, NHS Blood & Transplant Tissue & Eye Services): Decellularisation and development of decellularised scaffolds

11.45am-12.15	Presentation from Kyle Bennett (National Tissue Bank Manager, NHS Blood & Transplant Tissue & Eye Services): Good Manufacturing Practice, the HTA's expectations
12.15- 1.15	Lunch and networking: Tours of the human tissue bank
12.45-13.45	Presentation from Dr Jennifer Edwards (iMBE, University of Leeds): Research and development of decellularised human musculoskeletal tissues
13.45- 14.15	Presentation from Dr Anthony Herbert (iMBE, University of Leeds): Approaches to stratification of decellularised human musculoskeletal tissues
14.15- 15.15	Ask the Experts Poster and networking session with refreshments available: Tours of the human tissue bank
15.15	CLOSE
